Definitions:

Local Government Authority (Council) - A Local Government Authority (LGA) is defined as an elected body operating under the Local Government Act 2009, responsible for the administration and governance of a defined local area within the state of Queensland.

Private Establishment or Venue - A Private Establishment or Venue refers to a facility or business that is privately owned and operated for commercial purposes. This includes entertainment venues, event spaces, hospitality businesses, or other locations that can host gatherings or events.

Community Group or Organisation - A Community Organisation is a not-for-profit group formed by local individuals or stakeholders with the aim of improving the social, cultural, economic, or environmental well-being of a specific community. These organisations often focus on providing services, promoting engagement, and fostering a sense of belonging among community members. Examples include cultural groups, charity organisations, and local clubs.

Traditional Owner - An Aboriginal person or group who has a recognised and deep connection to a specific area of land and sea, grounded in their ancestral and cultural heritage. Traditional Owners hold cultural authority to speak for and make decisions about their Country, and carry a responsibility to protect, preserve, and maintain their cultural sites, stories, and practices, which have been passed down through generations.
